A small Bank-note law has been intr aced in the Schate of Pennsylvania, the obect of which is to prohibit the circulation of Bank notes of a less denomination than five lollars in the State. It requires that all perons, such as merchants, hotel keepers, brokers, and in fact every one engaged in a business where there is necessarily much receiving and paying out of money, shall appear before he County Treasurer and make oath that he or they will not pay out or circulate Bank notes f a less denomination than $5; whereupon, the said Treasurer grants him or them a li ense to carry on their business, whatsoev may be. It is now the law of Virginia, and is said, has worked well. We believe there is a statute unrepealed, i his State, prohibiting the passage of foreign Bank notes under $5, in Keutucky, under pen alty of twice the amount of the bill or hills so passed. If we are correct, under the new charers of the Louisville, Kentucky, and Northern Banks, they are prohibited from issuing notes under S5. Washington Items. WASHINGTON, February 2 .- The Tribune's orrespondent says the committees will be an-ounced uext week. Mr. Sherman will be airman of the Ways and Means Committee and leader of the House. Mr. Grow will be at the head of the Territories, and others who were members of the XXXIVth Congress will probably he restored to the positions they then occupied. Nothing is yet determined however. Mr. Wendell has refused to answer certain interrogatories propounded by the Printing Investigating Committee, and is allowed time to decide whether he will adhere to that pur-pose. If he persists, imprisonment may be re consequence.

The New York Herald's correspondent says he elty has been wild with rejoicing during he night, over the election of Speaker. It is participated in by all parties who have suffered more or less financially in the delay of the organization. Speaker l'ennington and Messrs. Sherman and flickman were serenaled at Willard's by Wither's hand, accompanied by a large company of citizens and residents of the District. Willard's flotel was througed with neurice and the continents retered by the with people, and the sentiments attered by the Speaker, and Sherman, and llickman were bold and decided against the extension of slavery. The serenaders proceeded to the residence of II. Winter Davis, but did not find him at home. They then proceeded, about one o'clock, to the residence of Mr. Grow, and called him out of his bed, when he made a short speech.

Harper's Ferry Affair.

Charlestown, Va., February 2.—The town is thronged to-day to witness the proceedings of the trial of Stephens, one of the Harper's Ferry couspirators. At 11 o'clock the court opened, Judge John Kenny, of Bocklagham, presiding, Judge I'arker being engaged in nolding the regular town court in Hampshire county. The grand jury, of which R. V. Shirley is foreman, was sworn. The Judge delivered his charge, and in referring to the Harper's Ferry invusion said: "It is known to you, and is now a part of the history of the country, that on the night of the 16th of October last a band of traitors, murderers and incendiaries stealthily unade a descent on the soil of Virginia, in the country of Jefferson, and wantonly murdered several of our citizens and people, with the design to incite our shaves to revolt and to subvert our government. not yet been apprehended, and others who are believed to have been actually engaged in this tragedy, but who are not yet known to the tragedy, but who are not yet known to the public. It will be your duty, and I believe your pleasure also, to inquire who was guilty of polluting our soil and attempting to dishonor the sovereignty of Virginia. I deem it unnecessary for me to recommend you to conduct your inquiries with that coolness, justice and good sense which has distinguished your predecessors in their inquisition, and which has met the approbation of the patriotic and good citizens of our common country: so conduct your inquiries that the bright so conduct your inquiries that the bright limited by passion or groundless suspicion and also let them be conducted without fear avor or affection, as you may elicit the truth he whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

The jury theu retired to their room, and the ses in the case of the Commonwealth vs

The witnesses in the case of the Common-

The work of impanneling the jury in the ase of Stephens was postponed until to-mor-row, in order to allow the counsel time to ex-amine the indictments against him.

Stephens and Hazlett will both be defended y Mr. Sennott. The Commonwealth is repre-suled by Andrew Ilanter. li is deemed unnecessary, at present, to in-rease to any extent, the military force now-ere: the only addition that has been made is

Mr. Stephens was brought in by the jailo from that determination, and thought the in-dictment should be quashed. He appealed to the mercy of the Court, for it certainly would to an act of mercy to send the prisoners to stanton for trial.

Mr. Harding, for the Commonwealth, had unt made a proposition for removal, and strongly protested against that throughout the trial. He was at present willing to turn them all over ta the Federal authority, but after the State decided to try him he was opposed to any change of trial. He did not consider Governor Wise hed authority to make a change ernor Wise had authority to make a change.

Mr. Huuter denounced as utterly untrue, the assertion of Mr. Sennott, that Stephens was orced to plead at the late term of the Court. Mr. Sennett disclaimed any intention to re-dect ou any one, and spoke eloquently of the State of Virginia, hoping his tongue might wither before he would speak in any but terms of praise of the State. When the offer was made to send Stephens to Staunton, he thought he had better accept the offer, for it was a restart of life and death and he might share.

The European Congress.—The object of Lord Cowley's mission to London was to resume uegotiations between England and France, which were instituted by the former and interrupted by Count Walewski's proposition. The principle of these negotiations was non-interven-tion in the affairs of Central Italy. Washington, February 2.—At the Republican caucus many seekers of places were gathered in the lobbies impatiently waiting the result. Rumors from time to time ereated much excitement among them.

It was ascertained from the proceedings in the hall that the preponderance of feeling there was in favor of Mr. Forney for Clerk, and Henry W. Hoffman for Sargeaut-at-Arms of the House.

The gentlemen were recommended but not The gentlemen were recommended but not elected. No definite action was taken on the candidates for the other officers.

Some difficulty was occasioned by there being two candidates for the office of Doorkeeper from New York, Captain Dailing and Ira Goodenough, while Geo Marston, of New llampshire, is the prominent candidate for that office.

The members of the House to-day kept the Sargeant-at-Arms busy by drawing their pay and mileage; the Speaker yesterday having signed a check ou the Treasury for a large amount of money.

The Senate to-day, in executive session, spiritedly debated for more than two hours the motion to reconsider the vote by which the Hon, Francis J. The IRON being absorbed by the blood, and thus eirculating through the whole-system, no part of the bedy can escape their truly wonderful influence.

The experience of thousands daily proves that ne prepara lon of irou can for a moment be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital suergy, paid and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost overy conseivable case. In all cases of lemals debitity (finor albus, chlorosis, &c.) its effects are delightfully renovating. No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy and fully restorative effects. Good appelle, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use. As a grand somachie and general restorative it has no superior and no substitute.
